

NEW NATIONAL PRESIDENT AND NATIONAL BOARD

The AIP would like to welcome the new National President, Llew Stephens. In his spare time he is the Packaging Innovation Manager - Juice for National Foods Limited. Please welcome Llew to the role!

In addition we would like to welcome Nola Porteus to the position of Victorian Chairman and the following people as new National Board members: Robin Tuckerman, Bradley Wardrop-Brown, Ian Fletcher, Greg Windsor, Ralph Moyle Michael Peters.

At the same time the AIP would like to express their sincerest gratitude to George Ganzemuller who has been instrumental in the growth of the Institute over the last few years. George will stay on as Past President and will no doubt be assisting and guiding the new team.

INTRODUCING THE HARRY LOVELL AWARD

During the 2006 National AIP Conference the National Board of the Australian Institute of Packaging announced the commencement of a new award for the Diploma in Packaging. The Harry Lovell Award will be awarded annually to the Australasian student of the Diploma in Packaging Technology course achieving the highest final exam / dissertation results of the year.

The award will commence in 2007 and honours and recognises Professor Harry Lovell's work with education in Australasia. Harry was instrumental in developing and designing all of the accreditation for education within the Packaging Industry and this award is a fitting way to recognise his outstanding achievements and contribution to the industry.

AIP NATIONAL CONFERENCE

The Australian Institute of Packaging and the conference organising committee would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for attending the 2006 AIP National Conference and we hope that you enjoyed the speakers, the networking opportunities and more importantly gained some insight into the trends within the industry.

With over 250 delegates from across Australia and New Zealand this bi-annual event was the most successful conference to date with International speakers from the United Kingdom, the United States and New Zealand. Speakers included Andy Sweetman, Innovia Films, Dr Angelo Yializis, Sigma Technologies, Andrew Streeter, Pack-Track, Peter Addington, Xaar, Andrew Berger, Alien Technologies and Peter Ayson, Imaje Coding Technologies. The AIP would also like to thank each and every speaker for giving of their time to present to the Australian Packaging Industry.

This event could not have happened without the generous support from the following companies who are long-standing and continued supporters of the AIP: Amcor Fibre Packaging, GS1 Australia, Matthews, Tronics, Sunshine Technologies, Imaje Coding Technologies, The Le Mac Australia Group, Australian Packaging Machinery Association (APMA), JMP Holdings, Optimet, Retailquip, Safe 4 U, The Appointments Group, JL Lennard, Packaging magazine and Reed Business, Fibre King, Perkins Resources, What's New in Food Technology and Manufacturing publication, and Asia Pacific Packaging magazine.

The next National Conference will be held in Sydney in June 2008 so any feedback and ideas would be welcomed. Please email your comments to conference@aipack.com.au

Click here to view conference images

TECHNICAL CORNER

B4UBinnit Michael B Halley reports There are a number of issues to be addressed not only by consumers but the packaging industry as well in regards to rubbish sortation and collection; was amongst the messages delivered when two recyclers and a facilitator presented at the June meeting of the Australian Institute of Packaging in Melbourne. Click here to read The rest of this article

Click here to read Designing for a sustainable future

Click here to read Are you wanted by the packaging police?

Read Sharon Givoni's Packaging book reviews. A new column..

NEW FELLOWS

At the 2006 National Conference four of our esteemed members were awarded the Fellows grading for the Institute for their long-standing and significant contributions to the industry. Please welcome the following new Fellows and congratulations!

Robin Tuckerman, Llewellyn Stephens, Greg Windsor and Ian Fletcher.

Greg Windsor and Robin Tuckerman

Llew Stephens

MEMBER PROFILE

Bruce Deng
James Ross Consulting
Project Manager.

JAMES ROSS CONSULTING

Click here to read more about Bruce Deng

POSITIONS VACANT

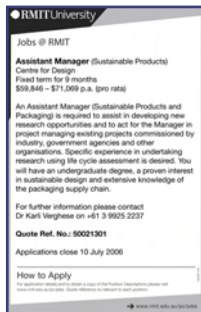

The latest job vacancies are with

Klockner

Masterfoods

RMIT

To find out more visit the careers section of the AIP website www.aipack.com.au

AIP PARTNERS

www.hbm.com.au

www.khspacific.com.au

www.Lighthousesystems.com.au

www.reedbusiness.com.au

Don't miss out on the latest AIP activities for 2006

AIP Technical Dinner Wednesday 5th July

VICTORIA
VIC@aipack.
com.au

Theme: The Three Tenets
The three nominated speakers will explore these vital aspects of packaging and management. The broad range of topics covered will be of interest to not only technologists, marketers and logisticians but rather to all those who package products.

When? Wednesday 5th July
Time? 6.00 pm for a 6.30 pm start The evening concludes at approx 9.00 pm
Where? Box Hill Golf Club, 202 Station Street, Box Hill (Melway ref 61 C3)

AIP Plant Tour Thursday 20th July

NEW SOUTH WALES
NSW@aipack.
com.au

Theme: 'Good things come in Glass' is a well known slogan and alive and well. O-I will conduct a detailed seminar in July on "the how and the why" of glass packaging design with practical examples in addition to the latest innovations in this field. The seminar will be held at the lovely Oatlands Golf Course near Parramatta.

When? Thursday 20th July
Time? 1.00pm – 3/3.30pm
Where? Oatlands Golf Club, Oatlands NSW Bettington Road (between Pennant Hills & Kissing Point Roads).

2006 Supply Chain & Logistics Conference 13th & 14th July

QUEENSLAND
QLD@aipack.
com.au

As the largest logistics & supply chain conference held in Queensland the event is ideally suited to logisticians, practitioners, academics, procurement & inventory managers, government contractors, supply chain managers, educators and anyone interested in optimising their supply chain. Mark your diaries now!

Theme: Availability
When? 13th and 14th of July
Where? Sofitel Hotel Brisbane

The 2006 theme will be:

availability

the right product for the right price
in the right place at the right time

www.qldsc.com

AIP PARTNERS

ASIA PACIFIC
PACKAGING

www.i-grafix.com

www.dymark.com.au

www.bcs.com.au

JAMES ROSS
CONSULTING

www.jrconsulting.com